White Glover ~ another set of eyes to make certain that the quilts are being treated with respect throughout the museum. Guests are required to wear gloves if they want to touch a quilt. Our “white glovers” gently remind them. Many volunteers bring hand work with them. This also creates an interactive situation and an opportunity for guests to learn. White Glovers are welcome any time.

Greeter ~ during our busier days and special events, a greeter is needed to direct people or simply to welcome them to our facility.

Hostess ~ our hostess will take care of refreshments during special events.

Exhibits ~ assist with quilt/sewing related displays & hanging show. July 11 – 29

Mailings ~ if you can help fold or stuff envelopes, we can use you!
